Why Does This Matter?

Song of Response

Theologian J.I. Packer once wrote, "Theology is for doxology and devotion—that is, the praise of God and the practice of godliness...Theology is at its healthiest when it is consciously under the eye of God of whom it speaks, and when it is singing to his glory." Preaching, at its core, is theological. It proclaims truths about God, from God's Word, to God's people. Our response to this should be worship or doxology. And, one of the richest ways in which we worship is through our singing. Our song of response matters because it is a genuine and worshipful outflow from encountering God through His preached Word.

Spotlight

Prayer & Fellowship Gathering

Every 1st Sunday of the month, we gather together in the evening (5pm onwards) for our Prayer & Fellowship Gathering in the Sanctuary. We sing together to open, then study the Word together. After, we gather in small groups to pray. Our time of prayer allows us set aside time to pray for our church, other churches in Malaysia, Christians in other countries, and for any personal requests. We then regroup in the Fellowship Hall to share a potbless meal with each other. We encourage anyone, visitor or long-time member, to attend these monthly meetings!
