Why Does This Matter?

Prayer of Confession and Repentance

One of the sweetest promises in all of Scripture is 1 John 1:9. "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." Our prayer of confession and repentance matters precisely because of this promise. In this prayer, one member of our church family leads us in confessing our sin before God, petitioning Him for His power to help us turn from sin, and then, together, grabbing hold of the promise of 1 John 1:9 that Christ has secured for us. Our prayer of confession and repentance is a penetrating and corporate reminder of God's holiness, our neediness, and God's pardon of us in Christ.

Spotlight

Mid-Year Members' Meeting

Every year we gather in May for one of our two major members' meetings. This year's Mid-Year Meeting will be held on 17 May. As a church, we are led by our elders, but ultimately we are governed by our members! During our meeting, each member of ICMK will be asked to exercise their governing authority by voting on new officers and a change to the constitution. Additionally, the elders will give important updates regarding our church. If you are a member of ICMK, please make our upcoming meeting a priority! If you cannot attend the meeting, please contact admin@icatmk.com to receive your Absentee Ballot.

If you have any questions, please feel free to email info@icatmk.com
