Why Does This Matter?

Communion

"Do this." That was the command our Lord gave His disciples and, by extension, His Church. When we come together for Communion we eat bread (representing Christ's body) and drink of the fruit of the vine (representing Christ's blood) and so remember the Person and work of our Lord on the cross. As Christians, we are prone to Gospel-amnesia and the somber celebration of Communion is the antidote. Not only that, it stirs our hearts to anticipate the fulfillment of Jesus' words, "I tell you I will not drink again of this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom" (Matthew 26:29).

Spotlight

Mid-Year Members' Meeting - Today

Every year we gather in May for one of our two major members' meetings. This year's Mid-Year Meeting will be held today, 17 May. As a church, we are led by our elders, but ultimately we are governed by our members! During our meeting, each member of ICMK will be asked to exercise their governing authority by voting on new officers and a change to the constitution. Additionally, the elders will give important updates regarding our church. Members of ICMK, please stay after service today to attend the meeting!
