Why Does This Matter?

Prayer of Intercession

When we think of Paul, what comes to your mind? Apostle. Author of much of the New Testament. The greatest missionary ever. We don't often think of Paul as a man who desperately needed the prayers of others. But he did! On several occasions, Paul asked churches (churches that he helped plant!) to pray for him in his ministerial endeavors. That's why our prayer of intercession matters. Every fourth Sunday we set aside time to pray for the missionaries and ministry partners of ICMK. We pray for their spiritual well-being, steadfastness in the midst of trials, and fruitfulness in ministry. And in so doing, we become actual participants in their Gospel-ministry.

Spotlight

Malaysia Baptist Theological Seminary (MBTS)

MBTS exists to provide quality theological training to church leaders in Malaysia and beyond. For many years, we have had the privilege of supporting MBTS financially. Please join us in praying that 1) God would draw more men to MBTS (and other seminaries) who would desire to be equipped as pastors, 2) God would cause the current students to grow in their grasp of Scripture, the urgency of missions, and the importance of the local church, and 3) God would cause the staff of MBTS to be unified, to be men and women of integrity, and to, themselves, be faithfully involved in their local churches.
