Why Does This Matter?

Benediction

The benediction is a two-directional act that closes our worship service. When directed to God, it expresses praise and thanksgiving for His grace. When directed from God through the reader to the congregation, it serves as a pronouncement of divine blessing, assuring us of God's continued favor and commissioning us to live faithfully in response. The benediction matters because it allows God to have the final word in our service and it reminds us that we enter into our week, not in our own strength, but sustained by the grace, peace, and presence of our Triune God.

Spotlight

Visitors Next Sunday

Next Sunday (14 June) we anticipate having around 75 visitors with us during our Sunday morning service. Here are three things to consider.

- 1. Come early. With so many guests, getting into the sanctuary and finding a seat may take extra time. Coming early will help mitigate some of those potential delays.
- 2. Welcome warmly. Although strangers, those visiting with us next Sunday are our brothers and sisters in Christ. As Paul writes in Romans 15:7, let us welcome them as Christ has welcomed us for the glory of God.
- 3. Pray expectantly. As we should pray every Sunday, pray God would soften the hearts of everyone who will gather with us. And, pray that the Word of God read, prayed, sung, and preached would accomplish God's good purposes.
