Why Does This Matter?

Pastoral Prayer

Our pastoral prayer is the primary prayer of intercession in our service. In it, one of the elders leads the congregation in praying for God to work, not only in the ministries and needs of our church, but also in other churches throughout Malaysia and even in other countries. Through this prayer, we obey Paul's exhortation to his protégé Timothy when he told him "that supplication, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people" (1 Timothy 2:1). The pastoral prayer matters because it is a weekly reminder of our great dependency upon God, His great grace to hear our intercessions, and His great power to answer them.
