Why Does This Matter?

Call to Worship

The call to worship matters because it acknowledges that our God is the God who initiates. In the beginning it was God who opened His mouth and by the power of His Word created (Genesis 1). In salvation, as well, it is God who initiates. It is God who sent forth His Son to die for our sins (Galatians 4:4). And, it is God who predestines, calls, justifies, sanctifies, and glorifies us (Romans 8:29-30). Our service begins with the Word of God calling us into worship to remind us that we are gathered together entirely because of Him, to respond to what He has done. He has called us to Himself and our response as a church is worship.

Spotlight

Ministry Breaks for July

After 28 June, both our Youth Ministry and Children's Sunday School will be on break during July and part of August. Parents, view this as a unique opportunity to shepherd your children and youth! Read the sermon passage ahead of time as a family, talk about the passage during meal times, and take advantage of this season to grow together in the Word of God. Church, view this as an opportunity to encourage the families with children and youth around you! Don't view whispering or fidgeting around you as a nuisance, but as a joyous reminder of our church's responsibility and commit to spiritually invest in the next generation.
