Why Does This Matter?

Prayer of Intercession

When we think of Paul, what comes to your mind? Apostle. Author of much of the New Testament. The greatest missionary ever. We don't often think of Paul as a man who desperately needed the prayers of others. But he did! On several occasions, Paul asked churches (churches that he helped plant!) to pray for him in his ministerial endeavors. That's why our prayer of intercession matters. Every fourth Sunday we set aside time to pray for the missionaries and ministry partners of ICMK. We pray for their spiritual well-being, steadfastness in the midst of trials, and fruitfulness in ministry. And in so doing, we become actual participants in their Gospel-ministry.

Spotlight

Ministry Partner: KVBC Equip

KVBC Equip trains gospel-centered, word-ministry workers, in partnership with local churches and beyond. Their conferences and events promote expository preaching and train believers to rightly handle the Bible. Their Certificate program helps hundreds every year (including many at ICMK) to know and teach the Bible better; its Biblical Counseling program teaches believers how to use the Bible to support and counsel one another; and its Diploma/Degree programs seek to train a new generation of faithful gospel-workers.
