Why Does This Matter?

Expositional Preaching

The book of Nehemiah is all about rebuilding. Rebuilding the walls of Jerusalem (Neh. 1-7) and, spiritually, rebuilding the people of Jerusalem (Neh. 8-13). And, at the center of rebuilding the people is the Word of God: the Word of God read, explained, and applied (Neh. 8:8). This is the way God always works to build up

His people, which is why expositional preaching matters. Expositional preaching is preaching rooted in a passage of Scripture and has as its aim the faithful explanation and careful application of that passage to the lives of its hearers. And, it stands at the center of what we do on Sunday mornings because it best encapsulates the aim of our services: to see the people of God built up by the Word of God through the Spirit of God for the glory of God.

Spotlight

Baptism

Baptism is a glorious picture of what happens to a Christian upon conversion: the Holy Spirit unites the believer to Christ in His death and resurrection, dead to sin and alive with Christ. When a church baptizes someone, this union is depicted in a concrete, beautiful way. As we listen to the believer's own testimony, we are reminded of our own testimony. We are reminded of our sins counted as Christ's in His death, the cleansing we received by His blood, and our new and eternal life. Please join us next Sunday, 9 August, at 9:15am on the 12th floor to celebrate the joy of baptizing one of our congregants!
