Why Does This Matter?

Prayer of Thanksgiving

The Hebrew word translated “give thanks” has a few meanings. In some places it speaks of the physical action of holding out one’s hands or throwing something.

In other instances it speaks of giving thanks or praising. Some scholars have posited that these two definitions go together because the extension of one’s hands was often associated with the act of giving thanks. The point being: when our hearts are full with gratitude, they can’t help but overflow! Our prayer of thanksgiving matters because in it our gratitude for who God is and what He’s done overflows in a corporate prayer of gratitude. As Psalm 95:2 says, “Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving”!
