Why Does This Matter?

Benediction

The benediction is a two-directional act that closes our worship service. When directed to God, the benediction expresses praise and thanksgiving for His grace. When directed from God through the reader to the congregation, it serves as a pronouncement of divine blessing, assuring us of God's continued favor and commissioning us to live faithfully in response. The benediction matters because it allows God to have the final word in our service and it reminds us that we enter into our week, not in our own strength, but sustained by the grace, peace, and presence of our Triune God.

Spotlight

Community Groups

Here at ICMK, we aim to foster deeper fellowship among our body of believers. One way we do this is through Community Groups. These groups happen on a variety of days and times but all focus on spending time in God's Word and growing together as brothers and sisters in Christ. They are also a great space for the "one anothers" of Scripture to take place. If you are a member and not currently in a Community Group but would like to know more about them or join one, please email the elders elders@icatmk.com.

If you have any questions, please feel free to email info@icatmk.com
