Why Does This Matter?

Call to Worship

The call to worship matters because it acknowledges that our God is the God who initiates. In the beginning it was God who opened His mouth and by the power of His Word created (Genesis 1). In salvation, as well, it is God who initiates. It is God who sent forth His Son to die for our sins (Galatians 4:4). And, it is God who predestines, calls, justifies, sanctifies, and glorifies us (Romans 8:29-30). Our service begins with the Word of God calling us into worship to remind us that we are gathered together entirely because of Him, to respond to what He has done. He has called us to Himself and our response as a church is worship.

Spotlight

Baptism @ ICMK

Baptism is a glorious picture of what happens to a Christian upon conversion. In conversion, the Holy Spirit unites the believer to Christ in His death and resurrection. That brand new believer is truly and forever dead to sin and alive with Christ. When a church baptizes someone upon their profession of faith, this union is depicted in a concrete and beautiful way. If you have never been baptized before and would like to learn more, please contact us at info@icatmk.com. We are planning our next Baptism Class and would love to include you!
