Why Does This Matter?

Congregational Singing

Singing matters because it is one of the most human and God-glorifying responses we can muster in response to who He is and what He has done (Exodus 15:1-21; 1 Chronicles 16:8-36). And, the significance of singing should not surprise us because our God is a singing God (Zephaniah 3:17). Congregational singing matters because it is the only form of music that is explicitly commanded in the New Testament (Colossians 3:16; Ephesians 5:19). When we sing together as a congregation, something happens. We are, in a single action, praising and thanking God for who He is and what He has done, reminding ourselves of the truths of God's Word, and encouraging our fellow brothers and sisters to continue to cling to those same truths.

Spotlight

Benevolence Ministry

The Benevolence Ministry offers relief in crisis situations. As imitators of Christ, we long to graciously provide for and serve people's needs with love, compassion, and cheerfulness. For every person in need, we seek to provide financial, spiritual, and emotional support. Our team meets together to discuss the mercy ministry needs of the church. Our meetings include: praying for and personally supporting all of the recipients of mercy; discerning how best to help new mercy opportunities; and discussing how to continue to support and empower recipients of mercy.
