Spotlight

Family Sunday

At ICMK, every third Sunday of the month is "Family Sunday". On these Sundays, the children who usually attend Sunday School remain in the service with us and, together with their parents and the rest of our church, sit under the preaching of God's Word. It's a special Sunday that echoes what we see in Nehemiah 8 after the Law of God has been rediscovered and all the people "both men and women and all who could understand" gather for the reading and preaching of God's Word.

As we approach Family Sunday month after month, here are two encouragements. Parents, view this as an opportunity to shepherd your children! Read the sermon passage ahead of time as a family. Have questions ready to ask your children about the sermon afterwards. Take advantage of this opportunity to train up your children in the Word of God. (We will also have activity clipboards available for children, divided into three age groups, available towards the front left of the church to help them track along with the sermon!) Church, view this as an opportunity to encourage the families and the children around you! Don't view whispering or fidgeting children as a nuisance, but as a joyous reminder of our church's responsibility to spiritually invest in the next generation.

As Psalm 79:13 declares, may we give thanks to our God together and from generation to generation recount His praises!
